Description: Alex Orrelle is first and foremost, an artist and a storyteller. His keen sense of style and ability to create unforgettable character performances are his trademarks. he worked for three years at Pixar Animation Studios as an animator, working on the Academy Award-winning hit films, The Incredibles (2004), and Finding Nemo (2003), as well as the Academy Award-nominated short films, Boundin' (2003) and Mike's New Car (2002). Just before joining Pixar, Alex served as an animator at Manex Entertainment, primarily working on pre-visualization and character animation for the visual effects sequences on the blockbuster hit, The Matrix Reloaded (2003). Alex recently completed work as the Animation Supervisor on the upcoming live-action/computer animated 3D adventure, "Yogi Bear," which will be released worldwide by Warner Bros in December, 2010.
